The resort is 20 miles northwest of Hopkinsville, on KY 109 N. From there Wendell H. Ford Western Kentucky Parkway, exit at Dawson Springs and take KY 109 south.

The map shows the state of Kentucky with several county boundaries. A green shaded area represents the location of the resort. Labels include 'HENDERSON' and 'DAWSON SPRINGS' in the western part of the state. The 'WESTERN KENTUCKY PARKWAY' is shown as a blue line running north-south. KY 109 is also indicated by a blue line. The town of 'WILMORE' is marked near the bottom. KY 60 is shown as a red line. The Ohio River is depicted on the right side of the map.

Pennyriile Forest State Resort Park

Pennyriile Forest State Resort Park is surrounded by perhaps the most beautiful woods in Western Kentucky. Named for the tiny Pennyroyal plant found in the area, the park is the perfect back-to-nature hideaway in the midst of a secluded, lush forest. Let nature refresh and renew your senses as the backdrop for your favorite pastimes.

Pennyriile Lodge

The rustic wood and stone lodge, with 24 rooms, sits serenely on a high cliff overlooking Pennyriile Lake. The beautiful selections of Kentucky handcrafts in the gift shop will make you feel like you discovered hidden treasure. Rooms are available by late afternoon, check out by noon Central Time.

Cottages

The twelve cottages are located in the wooded lodge area and on the shores of Pennyriile Lake. The one and two-bedroom cottages have unique features, offering wooded or lake views, and such amenities as private boat and fishing docks, fireplaces or screened-in porches. Tableware, cooking utensils, and linens are provided, with fresh linens available daily. Cottages are available by late afternoon, check out by 11 am.

Camping

Enjoy the beauty and serenity of Pennyriile Forest in the 68 site campground. The campground features utility hookups at each site, a dump station, a central service building with showers, restrooms and a laundry. Camping available April 1 – October 31. Check out by 1 pm. Make reservations at www.reserveamerica.com or call 888-459-7275
